- 5 If I am included in a 'group' in the local government elections, this is an indication of the shared values of representation and behavior. If elected I will vote as an individual not as part of a group.

Representation: I declare that I will represent the interests of my electorate as a whole and give effect to the ideals of democratic government by;

- Being inclusive and respectful of the views and priorities of the diverse range of people I represent;
- Actively engaging with the community I represent, by developing participatory and deliberative processes that draw on reputable evidence and analysis to identify and address issues of interest and concern to the community.
- Advocating in public, to government and in Council, and voting for, the policies that are informed by and in the best interests of my constituents as a whole

Behaviour: I declare that if elected, I will conduct myself honourably, with dignity and care¹ and

- Put the community's interest before any personal, sectional or partisan interest;
- Refrain from exploiting my rivals' private failings for political gain;
- Hold myself accountable for conduct for which I am responsible;
- Act in good conscience so as to strengthen the trust and respect of the community for our democratic institutions;
- Be transparent in all my actions when in office, by publicly disclosing all donations and meetings within a reasonable timeframe.
